The projects and initiatives projekt.kollektiv (IDA-NRW), Projekt re:act (Opferberatung Rheinland), Jugendliche Ohne Grenzen and Train of Hope e.V. would like to invite young refugees and supporters to a regional network meeting in Dortmund. We would like to and to get to know each other and to discuss successes, challenges and ideas for active participation of young refugees in the region of North-Rhine Westfalen. We are looking forward to meeting you!

Programme

- Performance of the play „ASYL-DIALOGE“ (Bühne für Menschenrechte)
- Panel Discussion
- Open Spaces*: Exchange in small groups about topics you want to discuss:
 - Empowerment: Active participation of young refugees
 - Cultural activities (theatre, music, film projects)
 - Dealing with refugee experiences of the past
 - Situation of LGBTIQ refugees
 - Feeling “home” – feeling “foreign”: questions of identity in German society
 - Arriving in Germany: First communication steps
 - ... Your ideas!
- Final discussion

Safer or separate spaces can be provided.*

We will provide coffee, snacks and dinner. The number of participants is limited. Young refugees will be considered preferably. The programme will be in German, but translation can be provided. The play “Asyl-Dialoge” will be subtitled in different languages.

Please register until December 4th via email and und let us know if you need translation, coverage of transportation costs or other forms of support*:
