YOU...

... are doing youth work (e.g. in a youth centre, youth association work, youth educational work) or you are volunteering in a (self-organized) initiative of young people in North-Rhine Westfalia?

... are standing up against racism and other forms of discrimination and ideally you already have some background knowledge?

... want to share your perspectives, problems and needs as a young refugee in NRW and/or reflect on them with others?

... are motivated to meet young people and youth work multipliers?

... want to think collectively about perspectives on youth work which critically address racism in the context of migration and refugees?

Then we want you to join our Future Forum!

The Concept

Our projekt.kollektiv belongs to the Information and Documentation Centre for Anti-racism Work in North-Rhine Westphalia (IDA-NRW) and aims to critically accompany and strengthen pedagogical and voluntary work with young refugees, taking into account the dimensions of racism in the context of migration and flight.

We're inviting you to spend a whole weekend with us to think and talk about the requirements of youth work approaches which critically address racism and other forms of discrimination.

The weekend offers space for inputs, workshops and networking as well as for intensive exchange with other youth work multipliers in NRW. We already have topic suggestions (see the speech bubbles on the title page). We think of them as cross-cutting issues and want to have a look at the intersections. You are more than welcome to suggest more topics for the Future Forum.

We're looking forward to your ideas!

DATE & LOCATION

28th - 30th September 2018 | Salvador-Allende-Haus, Oer-Erkenschwick

Arrival on Friday 5pm | Departure on Sunday at 3pm

COSTS

The weekend seminar is free of charge! We will take care of accommodation and food & drinks. If needed we can also cover transportation costs (to a limited extent) within NRW.

LANGUAGE & ACCESSIBILITY

The Future Forum will be moderated in German language. However, we don't want to exclude anyone because of language barriers so we can try to organize translation for you. Please get in touch if you have translation requests!

Unfortunately the Salvador-Allende-Haus is not fully accessible for wheelchair users. Don't hesitate to contact us if you have any needs or questions regarding accessibility.

SEMINAR PLACES & REGISTRATION

The number of seminar places is limited, so if there are more registrations than places we want to give way to the perspectives of young refugees, of young people who experience racism and to other marginalized perspectives. Therefore we would like to especially encourage young people with a refugee or migration background and young LGBTIQ* of color to participate at our Future Forum. The seminar weekend is intended to be a space for empowerment which will be accompanied by experienced participants.

If you want to be part of our Future Forum, please fill out the attached registration sheet and send it back until September 2nd for your binding registration. We will get in touch shortly after.

CONTACT

If you have comments, questions, wishes or uncertainties regarding the Future Forum you want to clarify before registration, please call us or write an email. We're looking forward to hearing from you!
